A Seasonal Reflection

I wonder if you have been in the process of waiting for various things to happen. Waiting is hard and time can drag especially if you are not sure if the news is good or bad. It must have been odd for Mary and Joseph waiting to see who the baby would be, did he have his mum's eyes!?

During Advent we wait again for Jesus arrival in the middle of the crazy festive season which can seem unrelated to the Nativity story. While trees are already decorated in some houses in November, in church we keep space for waiting. It can seem like we are on different wavelengths.

Most of us though I'm sure enjoy Christmas festivities and sharing time and gifts with loved ones. Ultimately Jesus is always worth the wait!

Perhaps though the most generous thing we can do this year is take time to pray for our friends, family colleagues and neighbours. Sometimes it's easy to forget the little things that mean a lot and the odd note or text message to say we are thinking of them can make a big difference.

Maybe we will send cards or see people at Christmas we don't bump into normally. Let's be ready to pray and share the good news of Jesus in our own way through our own personal and honest good news stories.

I hope the range of Christmas services has something for everyone this year. I'm really excited to see how things work here!

However this year has been for you I think let's take our lead from Mary and Joseph at Christmas. Let's commit whatever doubts and sadness we might have to God and trust that he will bless us all.

Amen

Revd Becky Allright
