Joint PCC

From January 2025 the Church has a new structure. While Brantingham, and Elloughton-cum Brough remain two parishes, the organisation for our church life together has become joint under one PCC or Parochial Church Council. This will mean after Easter that we have one bank account for all three churches for our day to day life, and one committee to decide how we achieve our goals in 'Living Christ's Story'. The different church buildings will all still have their own committees for things like the day to day planning of services, fundraising and maintenance. These will be called Management Committees. If you would like to join a management committee please do get in touch through Revd Becky revd.allright@gmail.com
