Going anywhere nice?

It seems to always be the case that if you plan a summer break abroad the weather at home is guaranteed to be amazing at home, but taking a break is really important.

In the Ten Commandments the idea of dedicating one whole day of Sabbath in every week to 'do nothing' is very high up the list. (no. 3) It ties in with the first commandment which asks us not to have any other gods but the Lord.

This means not putting anything else in a higher position in our list of priorities than God. He should always be our number one concern.

This is hard to do, as it means even our family should be less important to us than God. But if we trust him fully we know that his ways are better than ours, and he can take care of us so well, that there is no reason not to dedicate all the things that matter the most to us into his care. In fact we would be crazy not to!

So if you are concerned about getting away from everything for a while, or what might happen if you manage to properly switch off, then just think how God manages to take a day at the end of creation, just to notice what he has created and to be glad about it.

When we pause we also get chance to notice what has been happening, and how God is at work in our lives. I pray therefore that you get to stop and notice God at work in your work, rest and play. Amen.

Thy Kingdom Come

What would the parishes of Elloughton, Brough and Brantingham look like if God's kingdom was fulfilled? What are our hearts desires for our communities here?

Why not join us in praying 'Thy Kingdom Come' this year.

Between Ascension Day on May 29th and Pentecost on June 8th the Church of England joins in with an international movement of prayer, where we are all encouraged to think of three people we would like to know God and to pray for them specifically over the 11 day period. There are prayer journals available in church, and other resources available online. We will be meeting to pray at St Mary's at lunchtimes on Mondays at 12.30. Do consider joining us if you can.

Thank you to all who have supported the Children's Society this year

The full total for the benefice is £1,314.45 which is made up of Brantingham £410.91 and Elloughton and Brough £903.54 which includes donations from individuals and for coffee after the morning service of £226 .19

If anyone would like to have a box which is opened each March to support the charity please let me know
